

SITE VISIT TOP TIPS

Introduce your business by providing an overview and highlighting key, interesting facts.

To help keep the audience's attention, show as many departments as possible.

Introduce staff, especially if you have any young employees or apprentices.

Plan activities which give attendees an interactive experience.

Talk about all the different opportunities your company has to offer and how pupils can get into these roles.

Talk about your job role and what is involved day-to-day.

Talk about how staff members can progress within the company.